

Caprice by Jeremy

Caprice is the home of Cape Town's finest eye candy. Beautiful views inside and out. Inside on any given night, Caprice is filled with spectacularly hot models and people who like to hang out with models. And outside, every afternoon is completed by spectacular sunsets over Camps Bay beach. If you're into a five star ocular massage, Caprice is for you.

The music choice tends to be pretty easy going – housey, dancey, nothing too challenging, and the crowd gets going to the hottest dance tunes. Fortunately drinks are reasonably priced. Service is excellent so you will not go hungry or thirsty.

Well the short story is that Caprice is a totally legendary Cape Town hotspot. Situated facing Camps Bay beach, it's got one of the finest views in the City. I'd highly recommend sipping on your favourite cocktail as the sun goes down over the sea. Order some nachos. And let your eyes do the rest.
